

Fastening technology / Blind rivets

Sales promotion March/April 2025: Nickel-copper alloy blind rivets

15% discount on your net price!

Benefit from attractive special conditions on our TIFAS® nickel-copper blind rivet range in March and April 2025. How it works: Order one or more promotional items within the promotion period from March 1st to April 30th, 2025, receive the items immediately, and automatically benefit from significant discounts.

Offer valid while stock last.

Maximum corrosion resistance for extreme applications

Nickel-copper alloy (Monel® 400) blind rivets offer outstanding corrosion resistance and are the ideal solution for demanding applications in the marine, chemical, food and electrical industries. They guarantee a reliable connection even under the toughest conditions.

For detailed technical specifications, please refer to the product catalogue!

We look forward to your call and your order!